MAUI SUPERVISORS

Sommerfield Exonerated And Wilson Held In Check

(Special to the Bulletin)

Walluku, Mani, Jan. 10 .- The Board of Supervisors met last Tuesday af ternoon and adjourned this evening All present excepting Su₄ ervisor T T. Meyers of Molokai, who was absent n account of Illness in his family The Board appropriate 1 $67,000 for oad work for six months and $30,000 or salaries and incidentals.

The charge of Road Superintendent John H. Wilson agains: Road Overseer F. Sommerfeld of Wa;taku was fully investigated by the B ard. Both parties appeared and told their verion of the matter. Mr. Sommerfeld and also Farrier Dan Carey explained the reason why the shocing bill for November was $64, while there were only 23 mules and horses owned by he County.

Mr. Carey stated and also the road verseer that it was necessary to vork When mules working on the macadamized roads were taken to ull heavy loads of stones along portble tracks from the rock crusher heavier shoes had to be put on. The other charges were aslo thrashed out in full, and the Board went into excutive session to discuss the matter. After being in session for some time. the Supervisors came out and ancounced that the road overseer was gonerated from all charges. One evident good result of the investigaion will be, it is hoped, that there will be a better understanding beween Mr. Wilson and his subordineres as to their duties and also better

Geo. Groves was appointed verseer of the two Makawao sections at a salary of $100 per month. Mr David Morton was dropped as road overseer of West Makawao. The Board did not think that an investigation was necessary.

The new concrete bridge at Kahi iul, for which bids were let last month, is now under construction. The bid of the Honolulu Iron Works by its representative Fuller of $6600, for a new road roller, spreader and hoisting engines was accepted. The machines will be ordered from Springfield and will be brought here by one of the American-Hawalian steamers. The work of macademizing Main street from Market to the depot, Vineyard freight should be given, was the constreet and Market streets, Walluku, will soon be started and this is really good news to the Wailuku public, and ithis is a portion of the work asked terday afternoon.
